

2015 Holmberg Arts Leadership for Teachers Class

Developing Tomorrow's Arts Leaders Today

The Holmberg Arts Leadership Institute is designed for those who share a passion for advancing the arts in our community. Offered each fall, the four-month program develops leadership skills necessary to prepare the participants for prominent roles within arts organizations. The Holmberg Institute educates participants about the mission and goals of ArtsBuild and Chattanooga arts organizations; explores current issues facing the arts community; and strengthens individual talents and skills needed to serve as volunteers, board members and fund raisers. The Holmberg Institute provides many opportunities for networking as the participants receive a unique behind-the-scenes view of the arts.

Overview

ArtsBuild's Holmberg Arts Leadership Institute for Teachers is based on our popular leadership institute presented each fall. The Teacher Institute takes place over three consecutive days in June. The fall Holmberg Arts Leadership Institute was launched in 2005 in memory of long-time ArtsBuild (Allied Arts) board member and arts advocate A. William Holmberg, Jr.

Focusing on personal development, the institute provides teachers the opportunity to meet community leaders and to deepen their appreciation for the role the arts play in making Chattanooga one of the "best mid-sized cities in the South."*
