

ArtsBuild COVID-19 Policy: Frequently Asked Questions

In the face of increasing health and economic concerns growing out of the spread of COVID-19 in the U.S., ArtsBuild has taken a stance of protecting the health and employment of our staff, advocating for appropriate measures to protect the most vulnerable among us and pursuing strategies to protect the vitality of our arts and culture sector.

Is ArtsBuild open?

The ArtsBuild office is currently closed to the public until further notice. We are coordinating with our staff and building tenants to make the decision on when to reopen based on the best public health information available and guidance from the local authorities. Currently all unscheduled visits are not permitted.

What are current building safety policies for scheduled visits?

Please be aware of the following office procedures and resources:

- Visitors and staff are required to wear face masks while in our building.
- Visitors and staff are required to maintain a proper 6 feet distance between one another at all times.
- ArtsBuild will maintain a limited supply of masks for visitors who don't have their own.
- While all public programs and meetings will remain suspended until further notice we will continue to support and offer virtual programs and meetings.

Can my organization hold meetings or programs in the ArtsBuild Conference Room or EPB City-View Deck?

No. For the time being, ArtsBuild is unable to host any meetings or programs planned by outside organizations in our Conference Room or EPB City-View Deck.

For more information please contact ArtsBuild staff.
