

Art 120 Work Plan for ArtsBuild Fellowship Program

Art 120 is a 501(c)3 organization created to enrich Chattanooga and its surrounding community through the creation, education, and celebration of STE(A)M-based learning. Basically, it's all about A.R.T.

Awareness between the community, artists, educators, and non-profit organizations thereby creating a creative network serving Chattanooga and communities within about a 120 mile radius.

Reaching out to the public and under-served schools through free art events in Hamilton County that help strengthen Chattanooga's ties to its creative community while recognizing participating artists of all ages and mediums.

Teaching STE(A)M-based workforce development skills to urban youth through the creation of mechanical sculpture and reinforcing talents through continued participation in community events.

We are seeking an Art 120 Curriculum Associate for the Summer of 2021. Last summer, a team of interns evaluated and re-developed our Jingle Truck program for virtual learning. This summer the Art 120 Curriculum Associate will work with artist, Sadaf Khan, and executive director, Kate Warren, to evaluate our current online program, research online learning technology, and assist with marketing our Jingle Truck Program for school year 2021. This job is ideal for students with great communication/presentation skills, tech savvy, and is comfortable conducting online research.

Through this internship, you will gain experience in the 4 C's: communication, collaboration, creative problem-solving, and career planning!

- Performing tasks that will result in your understanding of the role of Co-Creation in your community and in your world.
- A research role in the facilitation and development of online learning
- Program evaluation and documentation to aid Art 120 in building capacity and sustainability for their online Jingle Truck Program
- Working independently and as part of a team to develop actionable steps to take the Jingle Truck program into online learning
- Having fun!
